

Mind Map Generator from Raw Ideas – User Requirements Survey

Hello!

We are developing a web application called "Mind Map Generator from Raw Ideas" as part of our Software Engineering project.

The application uses Generative AI (GenAI) to convert unstructured thoughts, ideas, and notes into a structured mind map with clear nodes, sub-nodes, and categories.

This survey is conducted to understand user needs, preferences, and expectations from the application. Your responses will help us identify functional requirements and design a useful and user-friendly system.

Your participation is voluntary, and your valuable feedback is greatly appreciated.

Thank you for your time and support!
